

Christmas Quilted House Tour
Friday & Saturday
December 1 & 2, 2017

Travel back in time to a 1912 American four-square house filled with period wallpaper and Renaissance Revival antiques from the 1860's.

Each room and all the trees will be lovingly decorated with special ornament collections including White House Christmas, hand blown glass, and hand crafted redwork ornaments.

A special feature will be antique quilts from the collection of Patricia Cox.
